Development and Driving Small Business Forward: A History of Ideas at AllNovaScotia

Caroline Wood

Brad Jobe

Seth Stevenson

Abstract

Publisher Caroline Wood will offer up a good example of entrepreneurs who challenge developers to stretch their brains to help expand a successful, sustainable and socially important business.

About the Presenters

Caroline Wood is a Nova Scotia entrepreneur who has launched three successful media businesses with her father and long-time business partner David Bentley.

Brad Jobe and Seth Stevenson are both Acadia Computer Science program alumni. They are developers with AllNovascotia.
